It's not all headlines and deadlines on this years Riverside yearbook staff. A group with a natural bond that strives for perfection are only a handful of words that newcomer, 9th grader Naiya Yu described the group as: "My favourite part of yearbook is getting to work with people I wouldn't normally work with. It's something you don't get with other classes out there and it's really fun." Perhaps one of the biggest cons of yearbook is the early wakeup calls that the staff is all too familiar with. "The worst part is definitely having to get up early in the morning. It's not even a struggle, it's a battle, a war for me and for others. Just keep working toward deadlines and have some fun along the way." The most important part of a Riverside yearbook is the photos. Taryn Jijian (Grade 10) is one of the many photographers on this years staff. "As long as the photo looks good, it doesn't matter the process." Taryn is no stranger to a camera as she has been taking photos in her free time for years. "Taking photos has got to be my favourite part of yearbook." She adds, "this years Riverside yearbook has aspirations to make this book one of the best and a hard-working team of dedicated students are up to the task."
